DISCUSSION /APPOINTMENT OF A NEW FISCAL OFFICER CANDIDATE

Mayor Galea introduced Eunice Collene to Council again, noting that Sue Rogers was unable to attend the Finance Committee meeting in which Eunice was interviewed. The Mayor asked Sue if she had any questions she wanted to ask of Eunice, and Sue responded that she had reviewed her resume and had no questions. The Mayor then stated that it was his recommendation to appoint Eunice to the Fiscal Officer’s position, and asked Eunice if she had anything else she might want to say. Eunice stated that she wanted to give a two weeks’ notice to her current employer, noting that there may be a small problem with her vacation, but she will talk to her HR people and let us know. Mark Miller then made a motion, seconded by Chris Raftery, to appoint Eunice Collene to the position of Fiscal Officer at $37.50/hour. Motion carried with no further discussion. It was confirmed that her start date would be after all of her pre-employment testing procedures were completed and returned with successful results, and her new employee package documents were turned in to the Administrative Office.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to discuss, Chris Raftery made a motion, seconded by Bob Whitacre, to adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 6:10pm.
